Personal Guarantee

Where the customer is a limited liability company the Promoter regards the directors/shareholders personally liable for payment of all the Promoter's fees/disbursements and that in the event of the debtor company being in default of its obligations under this agreement to the promoter, the Promoter shall be entitled to sue those directors/shareholders personally for recovery of those monies.

Force Majeure – Covid 19

Neither party will be liable for failure or delay to perform obligations under this Agreement, which have become practicably impossible because of circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the applicable party, including any change forced on a party by a government directive, regulation or law relating to mass gatherings and/or pandemic issues.

For the purposes of this clause a Force Majeure event includes but is not limited to such circumstances Covid-19, pandemics, natural disasters or acts of God; acts of terrorism; labor disputes or stoppages; war; government acts or orders; epidemics, pandemics or outbreak of communicable disease; quarantines; national or regional emergencies; or any other cause, whether similar in kind to the foregoing or otherwise, beyond the party's reasonable control.

Written notice of a party's failure or delay in performance due to force majeure must be given to the other party no later than five (5) business days following the force majeure event commencing, which notice shall describe the force majeure event and the actions taken to minimize the impact thereof. All delivery dates under this Agreement affected by force majeure shall be tolled for the duration of such force majeure. The parties hereby agree, when feasible, not to cancel but reschedule the pertinent obligations and deliverables for mutually agreed dates as soon as practicable after the force majeure condition ceases to exist.

Neither party is excused from any obligation to pay money because of a Force Majeure Event, despite any other provision of this agreement. If a delay by either party arising directly out of a Force Majeure Event continues for more than 30 Business Days, the either party may, at its discretion terminate this Agreement by giving 10 Business Days notice to the other Party.

Covid 19 – Changes to Ticket terms

Both parties acknowledge and agree that the Promoter is subject to federal and state governments' management of the COVID-19 outbreak, and health directives and changes in regulations.

Whilst we have been anticipating a variety of scenarios, there may still be more changes to the Governments ban on mass gatherings that will affect our upcoming events and accordingly, each party agrees that if required or recommended, the Promoter may take any action including but not limited to reassigning seating to comply with social distancing rules, requiring customers to wear masks or modifying, cancelling or suspending in whole or part any matter directly or indirectly related to the event, the venue or the ticket terms.
